Black Ridge Acquisition Corp. Announces Intention to Further Adjourn Special Meeting of Stockholders Relating to Proposed Business Combination to Allow for Extension Vote

-- Special Meeting of Stockholders Relating to Proposed Business Combination Now to be Held on July 22, 2019

-- Stockholders Wishing to Remain Holders through Extended Period Must Withdraw any Previous Conversion Request

Minneapolis, Minn. July 5, 2019 – Black Ridge Acquisition Corp. (NASDAQ: BRAC), a public acquisition vehicle (“Black Ridge”), today announced that it intends to further adjourn its Special Meeting of Stockholders (the “Special Meeting”) relating to its proposed business combination with Allied Esports and the World Poker Tour. The adjournment will allow BRAC to hold a vote on its previously announced proposal to extend the time period it has to consummate the proposed business combination through August 10, 2019. The Special Meeting for the proposed business combination is now expected to be held on July 22, 2019, at 10:00 a.m., local time, at the offices of its general counsel, Graubard Miller, located at The Chrysler Building, 405 Lexington Avenue, 11th Floor, New York, New York 10174.

As previously announced, Black Ridge entered into an Agreement and Plan of Reorganization pursuant to which Black Ridge will acquire Allied Esports and the World Poker Tour. The parties expect the proposed transactions to be consummated shortly after the Special Meeting is held and completed.

The Special Meeting was originally scheduled for June 28, 2019 and adjourned until July 8, 2019. The record date for determination of stockholders entitled to vote at the Special Meeting, including at all adjournments thereof, remains June 10, 2019.

The vote for the extension will be held on July 9, 2019. If the extension proposal is approved, Black Ridge Oil & Gas, Inc., BRAC’s sponsor, has agreed to loan $30,000 to BRAC to be placed in trust for the benefit of each public share that is not converted in connection with the stockholder vote to approve the extension. Accordingly, if the maximum number of shares permitted to be converted as described in the proxy statement are converted, the amount contributed into the trust account per share will be $0.062; alternatively, if no shares are converted, the amount contributed per share will be approximately $0.002.

Stockholders who previously requested conversion of their shares for a pro rata portion of BRAC’s trust account in connection with the upcoming vote on the business combination but who wish to remain holders through the extended date are instructed to contact BRAC’s transfer agent to withdraw their conversion request at the following:

Investors may obtain additional information about the interests of such participants by reading such proxy statement on the SEC's website at www.sec.gov.

Forward Looking Statements

This press release includes forward-looking statements made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 that involve risks and uncertainties. Forward-looking statements are statements that are not historical facts. Such forward-looking statements, based upon the current beliefs and expectations of Black Ridge's management, are subject to risks and uncertainties, which could cause actual results to differ from the forward-looking statements.

Forward-looking statements are inherently uncertain and subject to a variety of events, factors and conditions, many of which are beyond the control of Black Ridge and not all of which are known to Black Ridge, including, without limitation those risk factors described from time to time in Black Ridge's reports filed with the SEC, including the definitive proxy statement. Among the factors that could cause actual results to differ materially are: the successful completion of the Business Combination, amount of redemptions and the ability to retain key personnel and the ability to achieve stockholder and regulatory approvals. Most of these factors are outside the control of Black Ridge and are difficult to predict. The information set forth herein should be read in light of such risks. Black Ridge does not assume any obligation to update the information contained in this press release except as required by law.
